Shot Three Times He Dies in Great Agony-His Last Words "Long Live Spain"-Europe Shaken by the Tragedy-Effect Upon Cubs.

Madrid, Aug. 9 .- Senor Canovas del Castillo, prime minister of Spain, was assassinated Sunday at Santa Agueda, by an anarchist. The murderer fired three shots, two of which struck the premier in the forehead and another in the chest. The wounded man fell dying at the feet of his wife, who was with him, lingering in agony for two hours and then passed away at three o'clock Eunday afternoon with the ery of "Long live Spain," which were the last words upon his lips.

Santa Agueda is noted for its baths. The place is between San Sebastian, the summer residence of the Spanish court and Vittoria, the capital of the province of Alava, about 30 miles south of Bilbao. The premier went there last Thursday to take a three weeks' course of the baths, after which he expected to return to San Sebastian to meet United States Minister Woodford when that gentleman should be officially received by the queen regent.

The assassin was immediately arrested. He is a Neapolitan and gives the name of Rinaldi, but it is believed that this is an assumed name and that his real name is Michele Angino Golli.

At a special meeting of the cabinet Sunday under the presidency of Senor Cos-Gayon, minister of the interior, the latter announced that he had been intrusted by the queen regent with the premiership ad interim.

An Anarchist Conspiracy.

The murderer declares that he killed Senor Canovas "in accomplishment of a just vengeance," and that the deed is the outcome of a vast anarchist conspiracy. He is believed to have arrived at Santa Agueda the same day as the premier, and he was frequently seen lurking in the passages of the bathing establishment in a suspicious manner.

Senor Sagasta, the liberal leader, has sent the following telegram to the government: "I have heard with deep pain of the crime that has thrown us all into mourning, and I place myself at the orders of the government and of the queen." Most of the liberal leaders have sent similar messages, placing themselves at the disposal of the government.

Shot Three Times.

The queen regent on hearing the sad news dispatched her physician, Dr. Bustos, by a special train from San Sebastian. Later, on learning that Canovas was dead, she wired her condolences to the widow.

The health of Senor Canovas had improved greatly of late. He had been leading a very quiet life, although he attended to the business of state. At the moment of the assassination he was waiting in the gallery of the bathing establishment for his wife, who was to join him for lunch. Suddenly the assassin, who had the appearance of an ordinary visitor, approached and fired at him point blank, one bullet passing through the body and coming out beother two lodging in the head. He fell instantly and only recovered consciousness long enough to speak a few words.

Died in Two Hours. Several medical men and his wife were unremitting in their attentions to the sufferer, but his wounds, unhappily, were mortal and he died in two hours. Extreme unction was administered amid a scene of mingled sorrow and indignation. The assassin narrowly esers and attendants who rushed forward. Detectives and civil guards immediately secured him. He was very pale, trembled violently and evidently spot. He will be first arraigned before the local magistrates at Vergara.

The roar of the revolver was heard in every part of the establishment, and the attendants rushed to the scene of the tragedy. Senora Canovas flung open the door of her dressing-room and caught her husband as he fell. The horror of it all overcame her and she swooned and fell over him. For a few minutes only did the prime minister recover consciousness. Then he opened be succeeded by Sagasta, his political ing the Cuban revolt. The cases against Cameron Miller, Wil liam Warner and Edward Shaw were dismissed.

Eugene V. Debs, who addressed the large miners' meeting on the Duquesne wharf at night, left Friday for Turtle Creek, where he spoke in the evening. Before leaving the city Mr. Debs denounced Judge Jackson, of West Virginia, for issuing the injunction restraining him from interfering in any way with the Monongah company or its employes. Mr. Debs said:

"This injunction restrains me from walking on any of the public highways leading to the mines of the Monongah Coal & Coke company. It is most sweeping and none other can be compared to it. The injunction annihilates the right of peaceable assemblage and effectually suppresses free speech. If it is sustained, and I have no doubt it will be, it sweeps away all constitutional saeguards and deliver us, bound hand and foot, to the corporate capital.
